

FROM THE GOULBURN CITY COUNCIL RATE BOOK OF 1873

There is not a great deal of difference between the numbers of ratepayers entered in the Rate Book of 1872 and 1873, as the final Assessment Number of 1872 was 1459A, (William Lansdown); for 1873 the final assessment number was 1497, (Edward Paul), only 38 extra names.

A breakdown of the amenities of the City is of interest, a selection being given below. It is open to conjecture what the difference exists between a slab hut, a hut and a slab cottage. It is possible that these terms could have been allotted by the Rate Assessors or even supplied by the ratepayers depending on their perception of the quality of their own dwelling. Other descriptions were : house, cottage, stone house, weatherboard house.

	Slab Huts	Slab Houses	Huts	Tanneries	Bricklayers	Blacksmiths	Saddlers	Butchers	Slaughter houses	Orchards	Hotels
1872	37	26	58	5	4	9	4	10	3	2	24
1873	38	51	43	5	3	12	4	9	3	12	25

Secondary industries included: coach factories, a lemonade factory, a tinsmith, two boot factories, several tanneries, and two newspaper offices. There were numerous entries simply called 'shops', but <sup>what</sup> these shops sold is not often stated. There was at least one foundry operating, that of John Byrne & Son.
